GANGS OF FIREBUGS.

The Arrest of Man Brings Them to Light.

Evidence of a Startling Nature Discovers in New York.

Developments Will be of a Sensational Character, It is Said.

New York, May 31. Morris Schenholz, who was arrested several days ago on the charge of arson, was arraigned in the Brooklyn police court this afternoon and held under $10,000 bail for examination of the facts brought out by testimony for and against him.

The only witness against the accused was Morris Weiner, the sidekick of all the other gangs of firebugs in the city besides the Schenholz gang.

Thursday on a short trip, going and returning on the wheel.

Mr. Herbert Smith has taken a short trip to the Maine coast, and has been in the city for a few days.

The new forecast which Messrs. Saunders & Son have been making for the season has been put in position.

A Friday was a hot, sultry day and a cloudy sky threatened the part of the day. Some rain fell but not in any great quantity.

Capt. S. H. Barlow, a steam yacht, New York, was in the harbor on Thursday evening, on a short trip.

A. J. J. Crosby, pastor of the First M. E. church, has returned from a short trip to the Maine coast.

A number of our citizens are paying attention to the grounds about their residences, and at present and some very pretty lawns are being made.

A boy by the name of Frank Foster, aged six years, was playing on the steps of the city hall on Thursday when he slipped and fell. He was not hurt, but the fall was a serious one.

Heath's school, which was held on Thursday, was a success. The pupils were very attentive and the teacher was very successful.

One Death and Several Prostrations in Chicago, Thursday.

CHICAGO, May 31.—The intense heat of yesterday, Sunday, was followed by a large number of prostrations, the promised rain and cooler wave of the weather, however, failed to put in an appearance and a consequence the thousands who turned out to see the race were the parade on the lake front or participants in the exercises at Oxford (Cemetery) were all but roasted by the scorching rays of the sun. The sun began to work again there was no prospect of relief until about midnight in the West.

The mercury continued to rise in that direction, and at 11 o'clock it stood at 91 in shade and from nine in the morning until seven in the evening it hovered between that point and 92. The heat was so intense that it caused a number of deaths and several prostrations. The police are reported to be the following cases:

Charles Bradt found dead at 20th and Washington avenue. Richard McDonald (contractor) died at 20th and Madison street. A body taken to the morgue. General Herman Huber in charge of police station. A body taken to the morgue. A body taken to the morgue. A body taken to the morgue.
